

Guidance

- Avoid procedures for at least 72 hours post-vaccine. This could be delayed longer, at the discretion of the patient and surgeon, but is not necessary.
- After major surgery, we recommend deferral of vaccine for at least 7 days.
- Due to limited data, at this time, receipt of a COVID vaccine has no impact on pre-procedure screening. Patients should follow existing pre-procedure testing guidance.